

Guidelines for Contributors to India Quarterly-Contd.

- India Quarterly aims to encourage scholars, policy makers and analysts to contribute original articles on matters concerning international relations and national foreign policies. It promotes objective analysis on themes of critical importance for understanding international affairs. Conceptually sound, empirically grounded and policy-oriented articles are particularly encouraged. Falling within its purview are regional and global concerns which have the potential to lead to cooperation, regional or global institution building or interstate conflict such as environmental issues, energy security, identity-centric differences cross-border movements of people, internal demographic displacements, global and regional political economy and diplomatic history. The opinions expressed in the India Quarterly are those of the authors and need not necessarily be in conformity with that of the ICWA. Apart from articles, the journal also features a book review section and often, commentaries.

- Manuscripts and all editorial correspondence should be addressed to: The Editor, India Quarterly, at Indian Council of World Affairs, Sapru House, Barakhambha Road, New Delhi 110 001. Manuscripts should be submitted via email only to editorindiaquarterly@gmail.com
- As part of the submission process authors will be required to warrant that they are submitting original work, have the rights in the work, are submitting the work for first publication in the India Quarterly and that it is not being considered for publication elsewhere and has not already been published elsewhere, and that they have obtained and can supply all necessary permissions for the reproduction of any copyright works not owned by them.
- 1. Writing your paper
The SAGE Author Gateway has some general advice and on how to get published, plus links to further resources.
- 1.1 Make your article discoverable
When writing up your paper think about how you can make it discoverable. The title, keywords and abstract are key to ensuring readers find your article through search engines such as Google. For information and guidance on how best to title your article, write your abstract and select your keywords, have a look at this page on the Gateway: How to Help Readers Find Your Article Online
- 2. Preparing your manuscript for submission
- 2.1 Formatting
The preferred format for your manuscript is Word. LaTeX files are also accepted. Word and (La)Tex templates are available on the Manuscript Submission Guidelines page of our Author Gateway.
- 2.2 Artwork, figures and other graphics
For guidance on the preparation of illustrations, pictures and graphs in electronic format, please visit SAGE's Manuscript Submission Guidelines
- Figures supplied in colour will appear in colour online regardless of whether or not these illustrations are reproduced in colour in the printed version. For specifically requested colour reproduction in print, you will receive information regarding the costs from SAGE after receipt of your accepted article.
- 2.3 Supplementary material
This journal is able to host additional materials online (e.g. datasets, podcasts, videos, images etc) alongside the full-text of the article. For more information please refer to our guidelines on submitting supplementary files

- 2.4 Reference style

India Quarterly adheres to the APA reference style. View the APA guidelines to ensure your manuscript conforms to this reference style.

- 2.5 English language editing services

Authors seeking assistance with English language editing, translation, or figure and manuscript formatting to fit the journal's specifications should consider using SAGE Language Services. Visit SAGE Language Services on our Journal Author Gateway for further information.

- 3. Submitting your manuscript

Manuscripts and all editorial correspondence should be addressed to: The Editor, India Quarterly, at Indian Council of World Affairs, Sapru House, Barakhambha Road, New Delhi 110 001. Manuscripts should be submitted via email to editorindiaquarterly@gmail.com

- 3.1 Information required for completing your submission

You will be asked to provide contact details and academic affiliations for all co-authors via the submission system and identify who is to be the corresponding author. These details must match what appears on your manuscript. At this stage please ensure you have included all the required statements and declarations and uploaded any additional supplementary files (including reporting guidelines where relevant).

- 3.2 Permissions

Please also ensure that you have obtained any necessary permission from copyright holders for reproducing any illustrations, tables, figures or lengthy quotations previously published elsewhere. For further information including guidance on fair dealing for criticism and review, please see the Copyright and Permissions page on the SAGE Author Gateway

- 4. On acceptance and publication

- 4.1 SAGE Production

The SAGE Production Editor will keep authors informed as to the article's progress throughout the production process. Proofs will be sent by PDF to the corresponding author and should be returned promptly. Authors are reminded to check their proofs carefully to confirm that all author information, including names, affiliations, sequence and contact details are correct, and that Funding and Conflict of Interest statements, if any, are accurate. Please note that if there are any changes to the author list at this stage all authors will be required to complete and sign a form authorising the change.

- 4.2 Online First publication

Online First allows final articles (completed and approved articles awaiting assignment to a future issue) to be published online prior to their inclusion in a journal issue, which significantly reduces the lead time between submission and publication. Visit the SAGE Journals help page for more details, including how to cite Online First articles.

- 4.3 Access to your published article

SAGE provides authors with online access to their final article.

- 4.4 Promoting your article

Publication is not the end of the process! Authors can help disseminate- their paper and ensure it is as widely read and cited as possible. The SAGE Author Gateway has numerous resources to help authors promote their work. Visit the Promote Your Article page on the Gateway for tips and advice. In addition, SAGE is partnered with Kudos, a free service that allows authors to explain, enrich, share, and measure the impact of their article. Find out how to maximise your article's impact with Kudos.
